  - a. No public comment
- 4. Empower Yolo's "Paint Yolo Purple" Campaign (with window clings)
  - a. Empower Yolo has been serving people in Yolo County for over 45 years
    - i. Longest running organization that serves individuals and families that have been affected by domestic violence, human trafficking etc.
    - ii. Have a 24-hour safe house in Davis that they operate for people that need to leave unsafe environments immediately Have 24 hour crisis line
      Offer counseling Legal support Housing assistance Helping people cope through pandemic
    - iii. In 2022 there were 272 survivors of domestic violence. Of those 130 children were served (being removed from a violence situation)
    - iv. Mostly grant funded, but also private fundraising, Big Day of Giving etc.
    - v. October is the month dedicated to increasing the public's awareness of the prevalence of domestic violence.
      - 1. Have a campaign to paint downtown Purple (public awareness campaign)
        - a. Initiative also in West Sac and Woodland and Winters
        - b. Initiative to have as many clings on business windows as possible to raise awareness

- c. Want to educate and engage the community and create a resilient and safe community.
- 2. Window cling that says "Help us end domestic violence" has QR code that leads to more info on Empower Yolo
  - Individuals and a sorority will distribute clings to businesses with the hope that the businesses will display the clings
  - b. Also have a cardstock card that can be placed by registers.
- vi. Empower Yolo's main office is in Woodland, but there is a resource center in downtown Davis (a DDBA member)
- vii. Brett asked if they would like us to include their initiative in a newsletter ahead of time?
  - 1. Empower Yolo answered "yes"
    - a. This will occur last week of Sept. / beginning of Oct.
- 5. Events Recap & Review
  - a. 2nd Friday ArtAbout (August)
    - i. Had a great turnout. Usually a slow month, but it was busy this year. Had 8–9 venues, and over 200 people.
  - b. Hot Davis Days Cars & Coffee
    - i. 3rd year doing this event. Collaborated with Cars & Coffee Sacramento. Brought new people to downtown Davis.
    - ii. Approximately 250 cars at the show amazing participation and excitement at the event from participants and attendees
    - iii. Davis Motors Sports Club participated (connected with UCD and has over 550 members)
    - iv. Yacht Club was also a part of this event
    - v. Little issue with a very small number of car owners with revving engines etc. We can always work on improving the event every year.
    - vi. There were a lot of people with professional cameras and social media was "blowing up" with different videos. Reached local and out of town throughout the greater Sacramento & Solano County areas.
- 6. Upcoming Events & Promotions
  - a. 2nd Friday ArtAbout
    - i. September will have 12 venues.
    - ii. Local Kitchens will be a venue for the first time
    - iii. The Secret Spot (behind the Wardrobe)
    - iv. MAK Design is showing off their own employee artwork
    - v. The Artery has fantastic show planned
    - vi. Natalie gave a thanks to Bohème for being a sponsor
    - vii. There has been an outside of downtown venue and more possibly interested now
      - 1. This brings up a possible conflict with the purpose of having the focus of hosting the event downtown (more discussion to be had on this at a later date if it starts to evolve more in that direction)

- b. Dive into Downtown (September 21 & 24)
  - i. Once a year we collaborate with UCD in bringing students into the downtown.
  - ii. Students walk in groups of 10-20-30 people with a guide.
  - iii. Downtown businesses have the opportunity to put their best foot forward and get students interested to engage throughout the year.
  - iv. DDBA reaches out to downtown member businesses and collects promotions and deals to make them available to the students.
    - 1. Currently 40 businesses have signed up and be included on the DDBA website (a dedicated webpage that UCD & DDBA point thousands of students to)
      - a. Some businesses have offered coupons or handouts to be given out at DDBA official booth at E Street Plaza.
  - v. This event is a good opportunity to collect student info or get likes and follows, etc. on social media. Also great way to get more newsletter subscribers.
  - vi. DDBA has made special tote bags for giveaways
- c. Thursdays in The Davisphere (October 26)
  - i. Excited to bring back Davisphere. There is a lot of excitement from people on social media. Article went out in Enterprise and posts on social.
  - ii. Back with one event on October 26th from 4-9pm.
  - iii. Will have retail, craft, beverage, food, dancing
  - iv. Plan to have a non-profit vendor again
  - v. Hope to have local opener and solid headliner
  - vi. DDBA has to make this event happen without being 100% sure there will be funding from the City
- 7. Davis Downtown Gift Card
  - a. Participating Businesses
    - i. Currently put a pause on recruitment. Want to make big push going into fall heading toward the holiday season and Shop Small weekend.
  - b. My Davis California Giveaway Collaboration
    - i. DDBA will collaborate on a giveaway promotion. Will use some e-gift cards in this campaign
    - ii. My Davis California is moving into an office in downtown Davis and will be a DDBA member very soon
  - c. Goals Discussion
    - i. Continued Member Outreach & Business Participation
    - ii. Consumer Awareness & Marketing Strategy
      - 1. Working with DTMA. Post will come out in coming week on e-gift card program
      - 2. We hope to gain attention of downtown members that aren't engaged as well to get them signed up for newsletter and more
      - 3. Want to engage local organizations (sports / schools / and more)

- 4. Yolo County Realtors Association reached out. Want Brett to speak at a meeting on possible collaboration
- 8. Marketing Priorities & Growth/Trends
  - a. Social Media Marketing Calendar/Management (DTMA)
    - i. This coming week will be launch of social media campaigns
    - ii. Calendar system is up and running
    - iii. Autum and Brett are reviewing draft posts
    - iv. DTMA is doing research
  - b. SMS Text Messaging Campaigns
    - i. Hope to have up and running for Shop Small Saturday and holidays
  - c. Facebook Group for DDBA Members
    - i. Seems to be on hold. Paul is going to look into it.
      - 1. Yelena: but who will be admin and run this?
        - a. Brett: goals and outreach need to be clear so we can decide if it makes sense.

9. Downtown Kiosks

- a. Concept & Content Inclusion/Management Strategy
  - i. Still waiting on decision from City regarding G Street digital kiosk proposal
  - ii. Would give us enormous marketing and outreach power
  - iii. There will be downtown charrette for G Street Activation Project on October 4th
- 10. Collaborations, Sponsorship & Advertising Opportunities
  - a. The Davis Enterprise
    - i. They print the Welcome to Davis edition. We worked close with them to get it printed early enough so that we can distribute it to the students at Dive into Downtown.
    - ii. They will include a news story with photos in their publication for DDBA
    - iii. This time of year, we do a little more advertising with the Enterprise. We like to support them although we do not have a large print budget. They are a downtown member.
    - iv. Last year a survey showed that around 20% of people who went to Thursdays in The Davisphere events heard about it through the Enterprise.
  - b. My Davis California (Instagram)
    - i. Starting to talk and collaborate with them
  - c. Davis Downtown Social Media
    - i. We have a solid budget for digital advertising
      - 1. Some posts are performing extremely well when boosted
      - 2. 3-4 years ago when Brett first came on board there could be 1-2 newsletter sign ups per month, now we can often see that many per day at times.
