Crisis De-Escalation Training Program

Program Name: DPrep Safety's Crisis De-Escalation Course

DPrep Safety's Crisis De-Escalation course offers practical advice for those who interact with the public on recognizing the early warning signs of agitation and aggression, communicating in ways that reduce hostility, setting boundaries safely, and protecting themselves and others. This two-hour course draws from the fields of psychology and law enforcement to teach practical skills when facing threatening or violent behavior.
